

CONTINENT OF MEDIA 99-05, produced July 20, 1999 by G Hauser

- *COM broadcast exclusively on RFPI; previous 1999 editions at <http://www.rfpi.org/webcast.html> and current one at <http://www.DXing.com>
- *Patepluma website adds Costa Rican station graphics:
<http://members.tripod.com/donmoore/ticogrph.html>
- *Guatemala's TGW R. Nacional is still on 49mb, but only one hour in daytime
- *Student strike at Mexico's National University also has FM station, webcast: http://www.come.to/unam_huelga
- *US Coast Guard weather broadcasts from Virginia, Hawaii, monitored in Ireland: <http://www.navcen.uscg.mil/marcomms/cgcomms/voice.htm>
- *<http://www.NewPrayer.com> offers to transmit radio messages to God at its last known position
- *World Radio network in Kentucky cuts back, but still going
- *Fairhope, Alabama, has Vintage Radio Museum run by Charles Strozier
of WABF
- *Climax molybdenum mine, Colorado, has TIS station (recording)
- *COM 9905
- *Emmis Communications has new world headquarters building in Indianapolis -- architectural review
- *Sinclair Broadcast Group tries to get US digital TV standard changed to European for better reception
- *Car antennas disappear into the glass -- latest technology
- *Final final sign-off of CBL 740 Toronto (recording) [originally by Harold T. Sellers]
- *COM input welcome at wghauser@yahoo.com or Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 ###